Auto~Star Named RSPA Certified Retail Technology Provider

MEDICINE HAT, ALBERTA – Auto~Star Compusystems Inc., an innovative developer of point of sale and retail management software, announced today that it has been named an RSPA Certified Retail Technology Provider. According to RSPA's industry standards, Auto~Star received the certified technology provider status by demonstrating a commitment to excellence and an exceptional level of professionalism. As an RSPA Certified Retail Technology Provider, Auto~Star is recognized as ethical and fair and stands behind the products and services they sell and support.

The Retail Solutions Providers Association, the only association dedicated to the retail technology industry, launched its industry Certification Program on July 13, 2009. The Certification Program is a new way to identify professionals in the retail technology industry and was developed to set and maintain the bar of professionalism for retail technology vendors and resellers.

Certification offers assurances to the public, including those who use the products and professional services that they are working with a company that is a distinguished solution provider. To learn more about RSPA's Certification program, visit GoRSPA.org/Certification.

"RSPA is very pleased to bring an industry association supported certification program to the Retail Technology marketplace," said Joe Finizio, RSPA President & CEO. "This program was developed to set and maintain the bar of professionalism for retail technology vendors and resellers. Auto~Star has proved it's worthy of this certification by demonstrating superior products and customer service."

"We are pleased to be recognized by RSPA as a technology provider that delivers exceptional levels of customer service. Auto~Star has been a member of RSPA for over seven years, and continues to stand behind our products and services, as well as comply with the latest industry standards," said Robert Symmonds, President of Auto~Star Compusystems Inc.

About RSPA (www.GoRSPA.org)
